Aire-Master Service FLY CONTROL

Manage your fly problem with our Fly Control Service. We use a combination of safe, effective insect control products to establish a line of defense against the vile offenders. Whichever fly control service is suitable for your business, Aire-Master's representatives will inspect all equipment each service period and make sure your dispensers or UV lights are in good working order by replacing cartridges, cans, and batteries as needed.

House flies are suspected of transmitting at least 65 diseases to people.

"We tackle the tough stuff!"
